

Sea Princess - Defever 49

Sea Princess features lots of shaded outdoor seating and a good size swim platform with ladder. On the main deck there is a comfortable saloon and galley, and, in the pilothouse, there is a raised sofa to enjoy the view while underway in airconditioned comfort. Sea Princess is available for full and half day trips for up to 15 guests.

Sea Princess is based in Phuket Boat Lagoon which is tide restricted and therefore full day charters may need to start or finish at Yamu Pier. Half day charters will be based around the tide on the day.

Full day charters include lunch for 8 people, coffee, tea, water, soft drinks, 24 local beers, snacks and chips. Various menu choices are available, with extra guests charged at 1,500 baht per person.

Half day charters include coffee, tea, water, soft drinks, 24 local beers, snacks and chips only with lunch available at 1,500 baht per person. There is no charge for extra guests.

All day charters include stand up paddle board and kayak, beach towels and snorkelling gear for 8 persons, captain and deck hand, fuel and insurance. Transfers are not included. Guests are welcome to bring additional alcoholic beverages.

Sea Princess Destinations and Prices

Ko Rang Yai is the closest island to Boat Lagoon and can be reached in just under one hour. There is a beautiful sandy beach and lots of shade ashore as well as a restaurant, toilets and showers.

75,000 Baht for a full day trip and 49,000 Baht half day trip.

Ko Naka Yai is about one and a half hours from Boat Lagoon. This is a busy anchorage with beach clubs and bars ashore and jet skis for rent. On the return trip the boat can stop at the small island and sand bar of Ko Phae.

80,000 Baht for a full day trip only.

Ko Khai Nok and Ko Khai Nai are small islands with good snorkelling and a few bars and restaurants ashore. From Boat Lagoon Ko Khai Nok is one hour and forty minutes and Ko Khai Nai is just under two hours.

80,000 Baht for a full day trip only.

Ko Yao Yai - Loh Paret Bay is a quiet anchorage just under two hours from Boat Lagoon. There is a long sandy beach with a selection of local and 5-star restaurants.

80,000 Baht for a full day trip only.